COMPANY

Starting out as Occupational Hygiene specialists, Safety First Group was founded by Ash Samms and Will Dooley, experts in the Occupational Hygiene industry for over 10 years, with a purpose to provide quality service at an affordable price.

Over the years we've built ongoing relationships with some of the UK's best known companies, allowing us to continue to innovate and grow within the health & safety arena. Consequently, we now have a full spectrum of health and safety compliance solutions including Legionella control and monitoring, DSEAR, Mental health training and more.
